April 2019 Newsletter

Information Resources for Parents:

Check out Broadway's Parent Page on the District Website. To find the page; click on the Schools tab then select Broadway Academy. You will see a list of pages on the bottom right. Click on "Broadway's Parent Page". Also, we have a new group page on Facebook. You can search for "Broadway Academy's Parent Information Page". It is a closed group so all members need to be approved. As always, you have access to your child's Student Portal. On it you can find your child's schedule, assignments, grades, attendance and more for each marking period. You can email your child's teachers and counselor through the Student Portal if needed.

6 Pillars of Character:

Recipe of the Month:

(Courtesy of Ms. Beaulieu and Cooking 101)

No Bake Cookies

You will need:

2 cup Sugar
¼ cup Cocoa
½ cup Milk
8 tbsp. Butter (1 whole stick)
½ cup peanut butter
1 tbsp. Vanilla
3 cup Oats

Instructions:

1. First, gather your supplies; 2 cups sugar, 3 cups oats, ¼ cup cocoa, ½ cup milk and 8 tbsp. butter (1 whole stick).
2. Take a medium saucepan and mix sugar, butter, milk, and cocoa. Set your stove to medium heat.
3. Every few minutes stir the mix. Here's a tip: While your mix is boiling get your wax paper ready. If you don't have wax paper, use anything silicone or I like to use cupcake wrappers.
4. When your mix is boiling, take off heat and turn off the stove. Mix in the oats. Make sure there are no pure white oats.
5. Take a spoon and scoop out a good size and plop it on your wax paper, etc. Here's a tip when using cupcake wrappers: Set all of your cupcake wrappers in a cupcake tin, so then the wrappers don't slip.
6. Let them cool for about an hour or put in freezer for 20 minutes. Makes about 12 cookies. ENJOY!

"Recipe of the Month" will be a monthly feature throughout the school year. Family meals are extremely valuable in staying engaged with your child, especially when you make the meal together. You can use the time to talk with your child about school, friends and life in general. Take it one step further and take your child with you while grocery shopping. This teaches them about planning, money and budgeting.

Do you have a family recipe to share? Please send your recipe to tvandeusen@gstcontractors.com. If it doesn't make it into the newsletter then I will post it to the Family and Community Outreach Coordinator page for Broadway Academy on the district website.

The Reading Department's Fact of the Month

Reading improves a child's vocabulary and leads to more highly-developed language skills.

Displays of Art:

Student Art Show

The D-wing is the place for the 3rd quarter Art Show, starting April 1st We will run the show through April 12th for any parents who want to stop by to see it at any time. The student portfolios are the Art Show. Their portfolios showcase their art work for the entire quarter and they are the students' final exam. Come see some fantastic work as the students share their accomplishments!

FACS Class:

Most students are finishing up the clothing and management unit. They will then move on to Foods and Nutrition. Students will be learning how to cook healthy and kid-friendly food choices at home.

Notes of Music:

Broadway Academy Spring Concert; Thursday, May 16th @ 7:30 PM. Students wear black bottoms with white tops.
Girls: Skirts, pants, capris, white blouses, tops, sweaters
Boys: Pants, white shirts (no tie is required)

Concert Expectations and Etiquette:

Good audience participation enriches the quality of any performance.

We, as the Broadway Academy Music Department, offer these wonderful suggestions that ensure that you and those around you will have an enjoyable musical experience:

- Please silence all electronic devices. Our performers deserve your undivided attention.
- During the concert, please be seated. Members of ensembles may enter or exit from various parts of the auditorium and they need to enter uninhibited.
- If you must exit, please do so during applause so as to not cause a disturbance for other audience members.
- We encourage you to hear the program in its entirety as concerts are designed with a complete purpose.
- It is important to respect the rights of each listener to enjoy music performed in a concert hall environment without distraction.

Our young performers are offering the best of their talents in the hopes of pleasing you, their audience.

Therefore, thank you parents, students, and to you the audience, for making our concerts such a success!

Please encourage your child to check their email for contest details and to check the 811 section of our library for many great Poetry books.

The Eagle

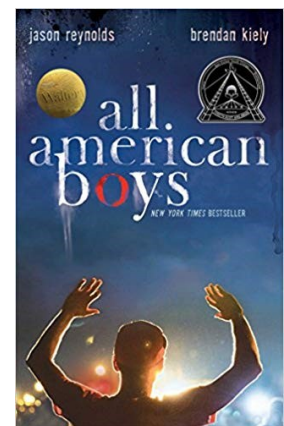

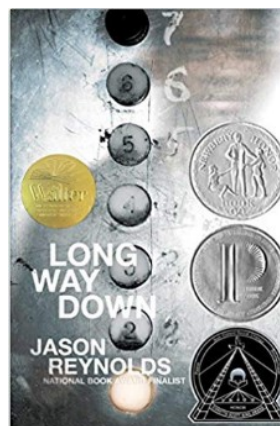

He clasps the crag with crooked hands;
Close to the sun in lonely lands,
Ringed with the azure world, he stands.

The wrinkled sea beneath him crawls;
He watches from his mountain walls,
And like a thunderbolt he falls.

Alfred Lord Tennyson, 1809 - 1892

Contest 1:

112 students entered.
10 students won signed copies
of a book by Jason Reynolds.

From the Elmira Express Junior Theater Players:

A giant thank you to those who came and watched our show, Into the Woods, Jr. We were very excited to have such a full and fun audience. Thank you also to all the parent and student volunteers who helped make our show a success. We could never have done it without you! Lastly, thank you to all the seventh grade students who took a risk and got on the stage! We are so proud of the tremendous job you did! Stay tuned for next year's show (to be announced in October of next year)!

On February 5th, the Broadway Academy Architectural Awareness group presented their Universal Dog Park design at the Corning Museum of Glass. This showcase event concluded months of hard work that took place during the APEX Program. The group included Wyatt Ambrosone, Jacob Bystrom, Samantha Farmer, Alyssa Gillette-Biddle, Nevaeh Mattox, Jordan Redder, and Miracle Smith. They learned college and career ready skills by partnering with Hunt Engineering and Architects. The skills included public speaking, project management, and 3D Model Fabrication.
